

Integrate and Configure

- Other school websites have similar requirements that will allow the user to do what they need to do
- Adding address and phone number to the database to be saved
- Parts of the classes would be revised to accommodate the standards of needing certain user information
- The database would store information from the modified version of the program