

Integrate and Configure

User Interface

- Look for similar existing website with user interface with similar requirements.

Backend

- Find code that has similar class such as student, instructor and admin and their similar properties.

Database

- Search for similar database where you can store and save the registered classes from the student and store the changes from the admin.